CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR &

V.M.KANADE, JJ

DATED : 12TH SEPTEMBER, 2006

P.C.

1. Heard. It is not necessary to go into the rival contentions which are sought to be raised in the matter. The entire petition can be disposed of by transferring the proceedings to the 3rd Family Court headed by Smt.R.S.Bhat with specific direction to dispose of the matrimonial proceedings in the matter in hand along with all the miscellaneous applications which are already filed or which may be filed henceforth on or before 31st January, 2007, without fail. The parties are required to co-operate with the family court in this regard, and no party shall be entitled for adjournment of the matter for more than three times during this period and every adjournment shall not be for more than 7 days, under any circumstances.

2. With these directions, the writ petition is disposed of. The parties are required to appear before the 3rd Family Court at Bandra on 20th September, 2006 at 11.00 a.m. for further proceedings. The petition stands disposed of accordingly. The stay granted earlier stands vacated.
